

Jim Ferriell, Jr. – 2015

This Louisville native won the Kentucky State High School Team Championship, captained the University of Louisville Men's Golf Team from 1962-1964 and qualified for 24 National USGA and PGA Championships. He is a three-time champion and a two-time runner up of the Kentucky Open. He had a ten-year stint on the PGA Tour, including one victory and represented United States in the PGA Cup in 1977. He is a member of the Trinity High School, University of Louisville and Indiana PGA Hall of Fames. His achievements do not stop at his playing abilities. While on Tour, Ferriell worked as a PGA Professional in Northern Kentucky before coming the Head PGA Professional at Crooked Stick Golf Club from 1978-2003. He's served the Indiana PGA and Indiana Golf Foundation and formed developmental programs and scholarships. He's been recognized by the Indiana PGA as Golf Professional of the Year (three times), Bill Strausbaugh Award winner and Private Club Merchandiser of the Year and is known as one of the top instructors in the Midwest.