

Ralph Landrum, PGA – 2012

Ralph Landrum is a PGA Master Professional, whose playing abilities are as numerous as his growth of the game contributions. Mr. Landrum was a standout golfer at the University of Kentucky, played on the PGA Tour for three years, played in two Masters Championships (qualifying for one as an amateur), had a top ten finish in the U.S. Open and many other national, regional and local championship accomplishments. He has received grants to help his growth of the game activities and been recognized many times for his contributions to growing golf through the KPGA. He has created and maintained many junior golf programs across the Northern Kentucky area.