

PGA
Kentucky Section

Pro2Pro

---

FAQ Sheet

What is Pro2Pro?

Pro2Pro is our Section's initiative to create a network of camaraderie, information and support to better connect Kentucky PGA Members and apprentices. Pro2Pro is about personal connections where we can share information, best practices and expertise totally around improving ourselves, the Section and the game of golf.

Who can be involved?

We want 100% support and involvement from all KPGA Members and apprentices. This will be a great opportunity to get to know everyone in the Section from a personal and professional standpoint. These connections will be valuable to you and enrich our membership as a whole.

When will this program get started?

Pro2Pro will be rolled out in phases. Phase I starts today with the announcement! In the next 60 days you will be personally contacted by a fellow KPGA to discuss the program. We need leaders interested and excited about this program.

Where can I find out more?

The program is in its infancy and we will be adding information via KPGA Weekly and the PGA Member section of the website. In addition, a KPGA Pro2Pro private Facebook group will be setup for members and apprentices for idea sharing and discussions.

What are the next phases?

Phase I

Initial connection and gathering input from all Section Members and apprentices.

Phase II

District meetings where we will dedicate considerable time to Pro2Pro content.

Phase III

Posting to PGA Member section of the website best practices and regional gatherings for personal and professional connections.

Who will monitor this and what rules will be in place?

PRO2PRO will have a member oversight committee that will meet quarterly, but will be monitored regularly. The main rules of the program are to keep any dialog and communication positive and focused on improvement and professional growth. This will not be an area to vent concerns or complaints about PGA affairs or employer. Additionally, the PGA Code of Ethics will be adhered to with regards to all aspects.