

The Media Representative of the Year Award recognizes an outstanding Golf Media Representative in the Kentucky.

This year's winner, John Engle of Pinnacle Sports View:

- Takes every opportunity to capture golf in the Commonwealth
- Provides coverage and exposure to local and statewide amateur golf, current successes of J.B. Holmes and Justin Thomas
- Serves on the board of his local chapter of The First Tee and features stories and promotions to grow the game and constantly features sales and golf promotions
- Features stories in the Pinnacle Sports View on Kentucky's own Holmes, Thomas and Kenny Perry, contributes to the success of Tyler McDaniel and other high school standout players, features stories on The First Tee and LPGA Girls Golf and provides considerable exposure to KHSAA Regional Golf and the HS state tournaments
- Promotes local courses, local players, The First Tee, growth of the game initiatives, Dennis Walters' Golf Show and the golf industry in general
- Revitalizes the history of our game by bringing historical content into his articles and stories, diligently researches and acknowledges his sources to keep adequate records and compelling stories