Selection Procedures/Guidelines

Selection

1. At the start of the annual selection meeting, the Committee by secret ballot shall vote to determine nominees to be considered. Committee Members shall place on the ballot a Y for accept or N for reject. If three or more members vote to reject the same nominee, they shall be removed from consideration for the current selection period.
2. Voting on the selection shall be by preferential ballot.
3. If a Committee Member would like to discuss a nominee before the first ballot, the Chair will allow for discussion and facilitate the discussion.
4. The Committee shall vote on each nominee by assigning a 3, 2, 1, or 0 point value to each nominee. The six nominees with the highest total vote will advance to the final ballot.
5. Nominees selected for the final ballot shall be discussed (alphabetical order) in open discussion by the Committee Members. The Chair shall recognize each Committee Member before they comment on a nominee.
6. The Committee shall vote on each nominee by assigning a 3, 2, 1, or 0 point value to each nominee. To be inducted, a nominee must receive three-fourths of the maximum available vote. This figure shall be determined by multiplying the attendance by 3.

Attendance	Max Vote	$\frac{3}{4}$ Required Vote for Induction
9	27	20
8	24	18
7	21	16
6	18	14
5	15	11
4	12	9

7. This numerical requirement may be waived by a majority vote of the Committee at the selection meeting.
