My name is Drew Doyle and I am currently a freshman enrolled at Saint Xavier High School. All throughout my life, my parents have been helping me to do what I want to do, which is play golf. I have loved the game since the first day I played and am certain that this is what I want to do all throughout my high school and college career. I have been playing tournament golf for many years and I feel that I should receive the Gay Brewer, Junior Fund for many reasons.

As a junior golfer, my parents have been very supportive of my interests and have been paying for my golf tournaments for many years. They drive me to all my tournaments and make sure that I am able to play in events that I want to play in. They have seldom told me that I am not able to play in tournaments, even though I know it is sometimes hard for them to take days off work to watch me in a tournament away from home. I am grateful for all that they do for me and feel that this fund would help my parents to support my interests as well as theirs.

Another reason why this fund would help my family is because I have two older siblings who are both attending college out of the state. I have an older brother that is currently a junior at Indiana University and a sister who is currently a freshman at Clemson University. I know that my parents have been doing all they can to help them financially. This fund would be a great blessing for my parents because they would not have to be so concerned about helping me to play in expensive golf tournaments while trying to get my brother and sister through college.

As a junior golfer, I have always worked hard and plan to keep the momentum as I continue to play at a higher level. I would take advantage of this fund and use it to gain college exposure as well as receive a college scholarship. Since I have just started the college recruiting process, I feel that it is important for me to be playing in different regional and national events. I am certain that I would make great use of this fund and would use it to its highest extent. Thank you for considering me as a candidate for the Gay Brewer, Junior Fund.

Brewer Grant Essay

Please consider our son, Drew Doyle, for a 2017 Gay Brewer, Jr. Grant. Drew is currently a freshman at St. Xavier High school. He is a member of the golf team, and played in every event his freshman year, until an injury a few days before the 2016 high school regional tournament caused him to be out the rest of the season. He has been a successful junior golfer in the Louisville area for many years, and he has recently started playing in larger regional and national events.

His record on the golf course speaks for itself, but his work ethic and determination are the reasons for his success. Drew has always been a straight A student, and he recently made the Principal's List again in honors classes at St. X. He gives 100%+ in everything he sets his mind to, but golf has always been his passion. He followed in his older brother's footsteps as a successful junior player, and he hopes to also play at the collegiate level, but the resources required to play competitive golf at the regional and especially national level are significant.

Our older son, Brendon, received the Gay Brewer, Jr. Grant in 2011 and again in 2013. We cannot overstate the opportunities the grant offered. He was able to travel to play in events, and compete against the best junior players in the country with the help of the Gay Brewer, Jr. Grant. He was also able to earn a very generous college golf scholarship to Indiana University, due to the exposure he gained.

Although we have always tried to provide opportunities for our children, the past three years have been financially challenging. We suffered a job loss that resulted the reduction of our family income by more than half. We are gradually increasing our income, but it will take us a long time to rebuild our financial stability. The Gay Brewer, Jr. Grant would help us provide the same kinds of opportunities for Drew that we were able to provide our other children.

We have sacrificed the "extras" to provide a Catholic education and extra-curricular activities, but we have expected our children to work as well. Drew has grown up on the golf course and around the game, but he has always known that playing golf is a privilege and that he is extremely fortunate to be able play. He works in the summer on the driving range at Long Run to help cover his tournament entry fees, and the majority of his allowance, Birthday and Christmas money goes directly toward his golf expenses. We believe he works harder because of this investment. We also believe he understands the importance of giving back so that someday others can have the same opportunities.

We believe Drew would make the most of this opportunity by continuing his success at higher levels, and most importantly, he would be very appreciative.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

John and Lori Doyle
