I feel as though I should be awarded the Gay Brewer grant for numerous reasons. It has been my dream ever since I can remember to play college golf. I have taken several steps in recent years to help me make my dream become a reality. I am currently taking lessons from Brad Rose in Knoxville, TN. Brad teaches several PGA professionals and many high level juniors. I take pride in eating healthy and sticking to a strict workout program to keep my body in top physical condition. I feel that I am one of the hardest working juniors in the state. I practice daily and enjoy reading about the history of golf. I love watching golf. I learn a lot from watching the game, such as the players reactions and how they carry themselves. I have been fortunate enough to play in local, state, regional, and national events. I am a member of the AJGA, HJGT, PKBT, and Golfweek Junior Tour. I feel the Gay Brewer Grant will give me the opportunity to play more national and regional events. Playing in these events will help me build my resume and give me more exposure to better competition and college coaches. My mom and dad work really hard to provide me with these opportunities. This grant will allow me to travel more and will help me achieve my dreams of playing college golf.

We feel our daughter, Hallie Boles, is very deserving of the Gay Brewer Jr. Grant for several reasons.

Hallie is a very talented young lady that works diligently to improve her game. She practices daily, works out, and eats a healthy diet. This grant would provide her with the opportunity to travel outside the region more frequently and gain more exposure. Her mom and I both work full time jobs. We also do additional jobs in order to try to cover the costs of her tournaments. We have very little discretionary income and no savings. Hallie's mom had extreme complications following the birth of Hallie's sister. She had several surgeries and very long recovery time. Our savings were spent on medical bills and have been unable to replenish them. We do everything we can to provide Hallie with ample playing opportunities. This grant would give us the opportunity for her to play in more events this summer. We would be very appreciative of the grant and it would go a long way in helping Hallie achieve her dream of playing college golf.
