Meet & Greet / Golf Clinic with Kentucky Native and LPGA Rookie Emma Talley

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Louisville, KY (August 27th, 2018) – Tony Walker Financial will host a unique opportunity for junior golfers in the area to meet one of the LPGA's rising stars, Emma Talley. The event will be held at Oxmoor Country Club on September 25th at 5:30pm EST. Junior players will enjoy Q&A with Emma then head to the practice facility to learn her favorite drills on the putting green and driving range. The event is open to any golfer under age 18 and there is no cost to attend. Each player will receive a signed photo of Emma, a sleeve of Calloway golf balls and have their picture taken with Emma at the event. RSVP by emailing Gina@tonywalkerfinancial.com OR call 877.499.9255.

About Emma: Emma Talley played her high school golf at Caldwell County High School in Princeton, KY earning three-time Kentucky state girls golf champion honors. Talley then played golf at the University of Alabama, winning the NCAA Division I Women's Championship in 2015. She joined the Symetra Tour in 2016 completing that season with 3 Top-10 finishes. Talley claimed her first professional win at the Island Resort Championship in 2017. Earning her LPGA Tour card in 2018, Emma wasted no time seeing success at the highest level claiming four Top 10 finishes and currently ranks 36th in the Race to CME Globe world rankings. She is currently in 2nd place in the Louise Suggs Rolex Rookie of the Year point totals.
